

INTERNATIONAL SPOUSES' GROUP SCHOLARSHIP 2018

WHO WE ARE:

The International Spouses Group (ISG) is a special interest group to help its members adapt to life in the United States, while being away from their homelands. Its sister organization, the Wright-Patterson Officers' Spouses' Club (WPOSC), is a private organization developed as a welfare and social forum for the spouses of military members.

The ISG will award one or more $500 academic scholarships to deserving high school seniors or spouses from eligible foreign military families. The number of awards is based on the previous year's revenue from the annual ISG Fair. Applicants are responsible for ensuring their packet is completed and arrives before the March 1, 2018 deadline.

The purpose of the International Spouses' Group Scholarship program is to identify, recognize, and reward outstanding young men and women graduating from our area's secondary schools or outstanding spouses. Our program was established to aid the continued education of students who have demonstrated the highest personal and intellectual qualities through superior academic performance and who have participated in and have led extracurricular and community activities.

JUDGING PROCESS

The Scholarship Judging Committee will make the final selection. This committee is composed of an impartial panel of three professionals – professional members of the community. Judges cannot be from the country that any of the applicants are from. Judges and applicant anonymity will be preserved during the selection process. Gender, race, and country of origin will not be considered during judging. The ISG chairperson and co-chair/s, who oversees the application process, will not take part in the judging process. All decisions of the Scholarship Judging Committee will be final. Individual scores will not be discussed with the applicant or any other individual. Each applicant will be notified by mail of the results.
